

CoreCivic Expands Contract with the State of Ohio for Capacity at the Northeast Ohio Correctional Center

April 11, 2017 8:01 AM ET

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 11, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CoreCivic, Inc. (NYSE:CXW) (the "Company") announced today that it modified its contract with the State of Ohio at the 1,798-bed Lake Erie Correctional Institution to house up to an additional 996 offenders at CoreCivic's 2,016-bed Northeast Ohio Correctional Center. The initial term of the amended contract continues through June 2032 with unlimited renewal options subject to appropriations and mutual agreement.

CoreCivic expects to begin receiving offender populations at the Northeast Ohio Correctional Center in July 2017. The Northeast Ohio Correctional Center currently houses approximately 550 detainees from the U.S. Marshals Service and approximately 200 detainees from Immigration and Customs Enforcement. The Company will include the financial impact for 2017 in its updated guidance in connection with its first quarter earnings announcement on May 3, 2017.

"We are pleased to expand our relationship with the State of Ohio by making available capacity at our Northeast Ohio Correctional Center to help address the needs of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation & Correction," said Damon T. Hininger, CoreCivic's President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are proud of the quality corrections and programming services we provide to Ohio at the Lake Erie Correctional Institution, and look forward to expanding these services to our Northeast Ohio Correctional Center."

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains statements as to our beliefs and expectations of the outcome of future events that are "forward-looking" statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the statements made. These include, but are not limited to, the risks and uncertainties associated with: (i) general economic and market conditions, including the impact governmental budgets can have on our per diem rates, occupancy, and overall utilization; (ii) fluctuations in our operating results because of, among other things, changes in occupancy levels, competition, increases in cost of operations, fluctuations in interest rates and risks of operations; (iii) our ability to obtain and maintain correctional, detention, and residential reentry facility management contracts because of reasons including, but not limited to, sufficient governmental appropriations, contract compliance and as a result of inmate disturbances; (iv) changes in the privatization of the corrections and detention industry, the public acceptance of our services, the timing of the opening of and demand for new prison, detention, and residential reentry facilities and the commencement of new management contracts, as well as our ability to utilize current available beds and new capacity as new development and expansion projects are completed; (v) changes in government policy regarding the utilization of the private sector for corrections and detention capacity and our services by the U.S. Department of Justice and the Department of Homeland Security; (vi) changes in government policy and in legislation and regulation of corrections and detention contractors that affect our business, including but not limited to, California's utilization of out-of-state contracted correctional capacity and the continued utilization of the South Texas Family Residential Center by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement under terms of the current contract, and the impact of any changes to immigration reform and sentencing laws (Our company does not, under longstanding policy, lobby for or against policies or legislation that would determine the basis for, or duration of, an individual's incarceration or detention.); (vii) our ability to successfully integrate operations of our acquisitions and realize projected returns resulting therefrom; (viii) the ability to attract and retain key personnel; (ix) escalation in salaries, wages, incentives and the costs of providing employee health care; (x) our ability to meet and maintain qualification for taxation as a REIT; (xi) the availability of debt and equity financing on terms that are favorable to us; and (xii) increases in costs to construct or expand correctional and other facilities that exceed original estimates, or the inability to complete such projects on schedule as a result of various factors, many of which are beyond our control, such as weather, labor conditions and material shortages, resulting in delays and increased costs. Other factors that could cause operating and financial results to differ are described in the filings we make from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
